

1. Underline the word or phrase which best completes each of the following sentences.

(a) To get fibre in his diet, George should eat

butter                      cheese                      eggs                      wholemeal bread.

(b) A mammal has

a backbone                      gills                      three pairs of legs                      wings.

(c) Chloroplasts are always found in the cells of fruits                      leaves                      petals                      roots.

(d) At adolescence, a change which occurs in a girl is deepening of the voice                      growth of placenta menstruation                      sperm production.

(e) In a food chain the decomposers break down dead organisms                      eat green plants hunt animals                      photosynthesise.

(f) A main function of plant roots is to absorb glucose                      absorb water eliminate waste nitrogen                      grow in soil.

(g) The part of the body which exchanges gases with the air is the kidneys                      liver                      lungs                      stomach.

(h) The chemical reaction in cells between oxygen and glucose is called aerobic respiration                      anaerobic respiration perspiration                      transpiration.