

10. How does the writer persuade us to feel sorry for the people of San Francisco?
Include brief quotations from the passage to support your view. (8)

[26]

SECTION C

11. Write a persuasive letter to a newspaper, aimed at informing people outside San Francisco of the plight of the survivors, and encouraging them to give generously in charitable donations to support these vulnerable citizens as they rebuild their lives. (25)

(Total marks: 60)