

SECTION B

Studied Literature

Answer one of the following questions.

1. 'Heroes and heroines can sometimes be dull, while villains can often be attractive.'

By referring in detail to one or more texts you have studied, discuss to what extent you agree with this view. (25)

2. Imagine that a character from one of your texts, who is not the hero or heroine, has kept a diary. Write the entry you imagine he or she might have written at the end of the story. In the diary entry, your character should explain his / her feelings about the hero or heroine. (25)

3. Choose one or more of your studied texts and, by referring carefully to events which take place, discuss to what extent the central character deserves to be called a hero or heroine. (25)
