YEAR 9 ENTRANCE AND SCHOLARSHIP EXAMINATION

SAMPLE PAPER

Latin

1 HOUR 15 MINUTES

Candidates should answer ALL questions. Start each question on a new sheet of paper.

Answer ALL questions. The three passages form a continuous story and should be tackled in the order in which they appear. Vocabulary given in the earlier passages will not be repeated after the later passages.

Please start each question on a new sheet of paper.

1. Read the first section of the story carefully (do not write a translation) and then answer all the questions.

A Roman writer witnesses the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in AD 79. He tells the story of his uncle Pliny's death when he attempts to save a friend.

ego cum avunculo meo in magna villa prope Misenum manebam, ubi avunculus meus classem regebat. subito mater in atrium cucurrit. ‘ecce!
nubes mirabilis e monte erupit!’ clamavit mater. statim omnes in hortum festinavimus, ubi mater nobis montem Vesuvium ostendit. ingens nubes, sicut pinus, e monte veniebat. avunculus meus, quod doctissimus erat, valde rem cognoscere volebat.

2. Read this section carefully and then translate it into English. Please write your translation on alternate lines.

itaque avunculus meus, nomine Plinius, iussit servos navem parare. deinde autem nuntius in atrium contendit Plinioque epistolam tradidit. ille, postquam epistolam diligenter legit, nuntiavit:

‘Rectina, uxor Tasci et una ex amicis meis, in magno periculo est. prope montem cum servis habitat et flamas timet. necesse est mihi eam iuvare. deducite quadriremes! non Rectinam modo sed etiam multos alios servare possumus! res periculosa est sed fortuna fortibus favet!’

Plinius igitur navem conscendit et ad Stabias, ubi Rectina habitabat, navigavit.
