Read the following statements carefully and then answer the question that follows.

Statement A

My Christian faith has always made me realise the importance of family. My children are baptised and they attend a church school. Family life is not always easy, but my faith does not allow me to consider getting divorced. My faith tells me that I must put my family's needs before my own.

Statement B

My faith is important to me, I try to bring my children up with Christian values. My husband and I got divorced last year, I do not believe that God would want us to stay in an unhappy relationship.

- (e) Using the statements and your own knowledge, explain why Christians have a range of views about family life today. [6]
