Your CD contains a recording of an extract of accompanied vocal music composed between 1900 and 1945.

A score of the extract is provided in the accompanying Insert.

The music is West London, a song for voice with piano, by Charles Ives. The text tells of a tramp and her children. Despite her poverty, she wishes to beg only from the ordinary people who will give willingly, rather than from rich strangers who would give uncaringly.

The text of the extract is as follows:

Crouch'd on the pavement, close by Belgrave Square,
A tramp I saw, ill, moody, and tongue-tied.
A babe was in her arms, and at her side
A girl; their clothes were rags, their feet were bare.

Some labouring men, whose work lay somewhere there,
Pass'd opposite; she touch'd the girl, who hied
Across, and begg'd, and came back satisfied.
The rich she had let pass with a frozen stare.

Thought I: Above her state this spirit towers;
She will not ask of Aliens, but of friends,
Of sharers in a common human fate.

She turns from the cold succour, which attends
The unknown little from the unknowing great,
And points us to a better time than ours.

[Matthew Arnold (1822–1888)]
