Answer one question only from the topic you have studied.

Refer to specific examples from the works you have studied in your answer.

Post-modern approaches to the Performing Arts since 1960

- 1 "Half of what I say is meaningless,
But I say it just to reach you..." (Lennon & McCartney)
How far would you agree that the techniques used by post-modern practitioners are little more than meaningless attempts to connect with their audience? [45]

or

- 2 In what ways do post-modern approaches to the performing arts reflect the cultural, social and historical context of the period in which they were created? [45]

Politics and Performance since 1914

- 3 Compare the treatment of political issues in contrasting works since 1914. [45]

or

- 4 Discuss the ways in which performance works have reflected the changing political landscape since 1914. [45]

The Twentieth Century American Musical

- 5 Discuss the view that 'music, dance and drama all compete for the audience's attention in a musical, but only the best musicals demonstrate effective integration'. [45]

or

- 6 "Everything that happens in life,
Can happen in a show" (Dietz)
Discuss the ways in which the American Musical of the Twentieth Century reflects what 'happens in life'. [45]

Approaches to Performance in the Far East

- 7 'Approaches to performance in the Far East are completely bound by their traditions.' To what extent do you agree with this view? [45]

or

- 8 To what extent did trade routes, empire builders and religious narratives influence the development of performance in the Far East? [45]
