Answer all the questions.

- 1 Read the following extract from Bridge Place Nursery's Ofsted inspection report and answer question 1(a).

Summary of key findings:

- The manager provides staff with regular training and effective support such as mentoring.
- Staff supervision of children is good. Children have regular opportunities to get fresh air and exercise. This supports children's physical development and suits those children who learn best outdoors.
- The special educational needs coordinator works closely with other staff to help meet children's individual learning needs. Children are provided with personalised support and one-to-one teaching when appropriate.

- (a) Identify four examples of good practice from Bridge Place Nursery's Ofsted inspection report.

Read the extract below from Bridge Place Nursery's Ofsted inspection report and answer question 1(b).

The nursery is not yet outstanding because:

- Staff were overheard talking about a child's lack of progress in the school car park and children's personal files were seen lying around in the office.
- Staff need to improve information sharing with parents about their children's individual next steps for learning and how they can support learning at home.
- Not all staff understand the safeguarding policies and procedures.

(b) The nursery manager wants to achieve an 'outstanding' grade at the next inspection.

Give one example of how nursery staff could apply each early years values of care to improve the standard of care at Bridge Place Nursery.

Use a different example for each value of care.

3 Read the following information about Ben and Jack then answer the questions.

Ben is an adult with a learning disability. He lives independently in a flat, with support, from a carer, Jack, who visits once a day.

Jack checks Ben is carrying out daily-living activities, for example having a shower, preparing and eating meals regularly, managing his bills and keeping his flat tidy.

Jack is an inexperienced carer. He is very impatient and gets angry with Ben. Jack sometimes shouts at Ben and calls him stupid, if he has forgotten to have a meal or tidy up, because it means Jack has to help him.

(a) Name the type of discrimination that Ben is experiencing.

..... [1]

(b) Give one example of how Jack is discriminating against Ben.

 [1]

(c) (i) Identify two possible effects of the discrimination on Ben's mental health.

 2 [2]

(d) Name a support group that could help Ben with his learning disability.

..... [1]

(e)* Jack's supervisor receives a complaint about the care Ben is receiving.

The supervisor arranges the following for Jack:

- training on effective communication and anti-discriminatory practice
- he is given a copy of the 'agreed ways of working' he should be following
- he is provided with a mentor.

Justify the supervisor's choice of actions to help Jack apply best practice.

4 (a) Actions taken by staff at a residential care home are given in the table below.

For each action identify the individual right that is being supported.

Choose from the list below.

- A Choice
- B Confidentiality
- C Consultation
- D Empowerment
- E Equal and fair treatment
- F Paramountcy
- G Protection from abuse and harm
- H Right to be treated the same
- I Right to life

Each right may be used once, more than once or not at all.

Write A, B, C, D, E, F, G, H, or I in the answer column.

Actions	Answer letter
A meeting is arranged to be attended by a resident, her GP, social worker and the care home manager to discuss her support needs.
A range of different social activities are available to meet the needs and interests of the residents.
Drinks are available in mugs as some residents have shaky hands and struggle with wobbly cups and saucers.
Each resident is given a menu of food options at mealtimes.
Lifts and ramps have been provided so all residents can access all areas of the residential home.
Meetings are always held in a private meeting room.
Risk assessments carried out on all equipment provided.
Staff ensure that all activities provided are accessible for all of the residents.
