- 3 Jamal, 23, lives independently. He has physical disabilities and is a wheelchair user. His house has adaptations which support his mobility and independence.

Jamal receives a limited personal budget. He employs a part-time carer to assist him with getting up in the morning as he is not able to do this independently. Jamal receives health care services from his G.P. but feels that his G.P. does not know him as an individual.

Jamal wants to get out of the house more, but lacks motivation and doesn't know where he could go. He feels that his care provides what is important FOR him, but not what is important TO him.

- (a) (i) Identify ONE way that Jamal's care provides what is important FOR him.

- (ii) Identify ONE reason why Jamal feels his care does not provide what is important TO him.

(b) Complete the table opposite by choosing a challenge to personalisation for each situation. [3]

Challenges to personalisation:

A – Communication barriers

B – Institutions promoting a medical model of disability

C – Resistance to change

D – Respecting choice when alternatives may promote better health

Situation:	Challenge to personalisation: A, B, C or D
A care worker informs a resident that they cannot go outside as the doors are always locked after 6 pm.
An individual decides not to continue with treatment, against the advice of their G.P.
An individual with a learning disability is not able to tell their personal assistant what they would like to eat.

- 5 Charlie lives in a care home and has dementia. He used to go for a walk every day, but as his dementia gets worse the staff are concerned he might get lost, so they only allow him to walk in the care home garden. Charlie's behaviour is becoming challenging, he mistrusts the staff and thinks they are trying to harm him.

Charlie's daughter visits every Sunday. He enjoys talking with her about past family events when his wife was still alive. His daughter reassures him that he is safe and staff are there to help him. However, when she leaves he becomes distressed again.

- (a)* Explain the importance of a person-centred review for meeting Charlie's needs. [7]

(b) Create a one-page profile for Charlie. [8]
