Council to Ban Street Music and Performers

The council has decided to apply a ban on all street musicians and performers. 'We have had enough of these people who clog up our streets and ask for money. Our streets should be free to walk through without being troubled,' said Councillor David Whelan. The council claims that there are too many street performers and some councillors have suggested that there may be links to crime.

Not all local people agree. Kamal Ahmed (17) said, 'I like these people on the streets. They liven the place up and you don't have to give them any money.'

Here at The Sentinel, we'd like to hear your views on this subject, whether for or against the council's decision.

Write to Celia Akukwo, Editor, The Sentinel, High Street
