Important Notice about Changes to Waste Collection

From 20th March 2012, the following changes will be made to the waste collection system in your area:

- all household rubbish will be collected once every three weeks, not every two weeks
- glass and cans must be put into separate recycling bins
- all other waste for recycling, such as paper and plastic, will no longer be collected: it will have to be taken to the nearest recycling point.

Anyone putting waste in the incorrect bin will be fined.

First offence: £25.00

Further offences: £50.00

After the third offence, collections from your property will be stopped.

These changes are being made to reduce the cost of waste collection in this area and meet national targets for recycling.

To give your views, write to Hana Keplova, Head of Recycling Services, County Hall, High Street, Estrick ES13 7XC.

Writing Task

Write a letter to Hana Keplova, Head of Recycling Services, to give your views about the plans.

In your letter you should:

- explain why you are writing
- give your views about the plans
- give reasons for your views.

Remember to set out your letter correctly.
