Sports Apprenticeship Scheme

Fenworth Council is setting up a new apprenticeship scheme for young people in the town. The sports industry is very popular and many people are looking for jobs in this area.

The council are going to recruit twelve apprentices who will be based at five leisure centres in and around Fenworth.

The scheme will start on the 2nd April and will give the new recruits a chance to work in a leisure centre, learn new skills and gain qualifications. They will be trained in customer service and how to use and look after the equipment at the centres.

Details of the scheme and how to apply will be on the council website for the next four weeks.
