INFORMATION FOR TEACHERS

Task A      Business

Situation

The candidate is the organiser of a conference for his/her company which is being held in your hotel. He/she comes to the reception to complain about the rooms, the conference facilities and the evening meal last night! You play the role of the hotel employee.

Task

You should deal with the problems and apologise to the candidate, explaining how they will be resolved.

*The list below is to help you. It is not intended to be prescriptive or exhaustive. Interaction is expected (not just a succession of questions and answers) and it is hoped that candidates will 'take the lead' after your introduction. Ask any other questions of your own to enable the conversation to flow as naturally as possible. Remember that questions that require yes or no answers should be followed up with a why / where / how question to give the candidate the opportunity to provide more detail. 'H' indicates questions that are generally more suitable for those seeking grades C-A*.*

Bonjour monsieur/mademoiselle. Je peux vous aider?

Comment vousappelez-vous ?

Quel est le nom de votre organisation ?

Comment ça s' écrit ?

Est-ce que tout va bien monsieur/mademoiselle?

Quel est le numéro de la chambre?

Un instant, je vais chercher les informations. C'est la chambre de qui ?

Je suis vraiment desolé monsieur/mademoiselle. Quels sont les problèmes ?

Est-ce que tout va bien dans la salle de conférences ?

Qu'est-ce qui ne va pas?

Combien de chaises/ blocs-notes voudriez-vous ?

Le vidéoprojecteur est cassé. Nous pourrions vous offrir un rétroprojecteur si vous voulez ? (H)

Vous avez bien mangé dans le restaurant hier soir ? (H)

Je vais m'en occuper immédiatement.

Je vais vous rembourser.

Information for Learners

Task B Business

Situation

You are on a work-experience placement in a large lost property office and have to deal with a French speaking businessman/woman who telephones to report a missing item.

Task

Use the prompts to obtain information from the businessman/woman about what he or she has lost. Use the pictures of objects currently held to identify the lost item. You will then have to give the person directions to the office and details of opening times. You may have to use your imagination to answer some of the questions you are asked about facilities in the town.

The person testing you will play the part of the businessman/woman. You should begin the conversation.
