

SECTION A: MODERN POETRY If you choose to answer on this section, answer ONE question only. You should spend about 45 minutes on the question in this section. Collection A: In Such a Time as This 1. Re-read Hide and Seek and The Send-off. In these very different poems, the two writers attempt to create an atmosphere of tension and anticipation. Compare the methods they use. Collection A: In Such a Time as This 2. Re-read the poem Wherever I Hang, which deals with issues of migration and identity. Choose any ONE other poem from In Such a Time as This which raises these or similar issues, and compare them, showing how effectively the poets express their ideas. Collection B: Identity 3. Re-read Death of a Naturalist and The Barn. In both these poems the writer recreates episodes from his childhood. Compare the methods used to give the episodes significance. Collection B: Identity 4. Re-read At Grass, in which the writer compares the present with the past. Choose AT LEAST ONE other poem from Identity which also raises this issue, and compare how effectively the writers convey their ideas. Collection C: Nature 5. Re-read The Stag and Iguana Memory. In both these poems the natural events observed have made a strong impression on the writers. Compare how successfully the writers give these events significance. Collection C: Nature 6. Re-read the poem The Storm, which creates a vivid picture of the power and force of nature. Choose ONE other poem from Nature which also brings out the power of natural things, and compare how successfully the writers express their ideas on this subject.	Leave blank
(Total for Section A: 40 marks)
2	 N 3 0 7 1 9 A 0 2 3 2

If you choose to answer a question from Section A indicate which question you are answering by marking the box (☒). If you change your mind, put a line through the box (☒) and then indicate your new question with a cross (☒).

Chosen Question Number:    Question 1     Question 2

Question 3     Question 4

Question 5     Question 6

Write your answer to Section A here:

Leave
blank

3

Turn over

(Section A continued)

Leave
blank

(Section A continued)

Leave
blank

(Section A continued)

Leave
blank

(Section A continued)

Leave
blank

(Section A continued)

Leave
blank

Section
A

(Total 40 marks)

BLANK PAGE

9

Turn over

SECTION B: MODERN PROSE

Leave
blank

If you choose to answer on this section, answer ONE question only.
You should spend about 45 minutes on the question in this section.

Of Mice and Men

7. What do you consider to be the role of Curley, and the role of Curley's wife, in this book?

Of Mice and Men

8. "Slim stands out as a positive role model for those around him."

To what extent do you agree with this statement?

To Kill a Mockingbird

9. Scout and Jem learn a lot from their dealings with characters other than Atticus.

Choose TWO of these characters and explore their influence on the children's development.

To Kill a Mockingbird

10. "In amongst the intolerance and prejudice, the writer still gives the reader reasons for hope and optimism."

To what extent do you agree with this statement?

Animal Farm

11. Although at first sight it may seem like a children's story, with its talking animals, what do you consider there is in the book which might make it relevant to an adult reader?

Animal Farm

12. "In April, Animal Farm was proclaimed a Republic, and it became necessary to elect a President. There was only one candidate, Napoleon, who was elected unanimously."

How does the writer use and develop the character of Napoleon to reflect the themes of the book?

Lord of the Flies 13. How effectively does the writer make use of the conch and the fire to express his ideas in this book? Lord of the Flies 14. “Ralph and Jack represent extremes of good and evil.” To what extent do you think that their characters are presented in this way?	Leave blank
The Other Side of Truth 15. The novel has been described as a “marvellous read”. Which aspects of the novel might be considered to be interesting and appealing to the reader? The Other Side of Truth 16. Sade is an outsider for much of this novel. How successfully does the author show this isolation?
Twenty-One Stories 17. How does the writer present children and childhood in this collection? Illustrate your answer by referring to The Basement Room and AT LEAST ONE of the other stories in this collection. Twenty-One Stories 18. “These stories often mix everyday events with sad ones.” By exploring Jubilee and AT LEAST ONE other story from this collection, show how far you agree with this statement.	(Total for Section B: 40 marks)

Begin writing on page 12.

N 3 0 7 1 9 A 0 1 1 3 2

If you choose to answer a question from Section B indicate which question you are answering by marking the box (☒). If you change your mind, put a line through the box (☒) and then indicate your new question with a cross (☒).

- Chosen Question Number:    Question 7     Question 8
                                    Question 9     Question 10
                                    Question 11     Question 12
                                    Question 13     Question 14
                                    Question 15     Question 16
                                    Question 17     Question 18

Write your answer to Section B here:

Leave
blank

(Section B continued)

Leave
blank

N 3 0 7 1 9 A 0 1 3 3 2

(Section B continued)

Leave
blank

(Section B continued)

Leave
blank

(Section B continued)

Leave
blank

(Section B continued)

Leave
blank

Section
B

(Total 40 marks)

17

Turn over

SECTION C: MODERN DRAMA

Leave
blank

If you choose to answer on this section, answer ONE question only.
You should spend about 45 minutes on the question in this section.

An Inspector Calls

- 19. At one point in the play the Inspector says: “We don’t live alone. We are members of one body. We are responsible for each other.”.

How successfully is the idea of collective responsibility explored in this play, through the use of the Inspector?

An Inspector Calls

- 20. How important is the role of Eric in this play?

Educating Rita

- 21. Early in the play Rita describes herself as an “outcast”.

To what extent does this comment sum up her situation in the play as a whole?

Educating Rita

- 22. Frank is a complex character. How does the writer present the various aspects of Frank’s character?

A View from the Bridge

- 23. How successfully does the writer present and develop Alfieri’s role in the play?

A View from the Bridge

- 24. “Family life and its breakdown is the key to what happens in this play.”

How far do you agree with this view?

Talking Heads 25. The monologues refer to many unseen characters. By referring to Bed Among the Lentils and ONE other monologue, consider the dramatic importance of these characters. Talking Heads 26. “The monologues are full of unhappy people.” By referring to A Chip in the Sugar and ONE other monologue, consider whether this view is justified.	Leave blank
Journey's End 27. “The audience learns more about the characters in this play as the tension increases.” To what extent do you agree that this is how the characters are presented? Journey's End 28. Many generations after it was written, this play is still frequently staged. What, in your view, might give it this continuing appeal?
The Long and the Short and the Tall 29. Some readers might feel that the soldiers are presented as racist and sexist. How far do you agree with this view? The Long and the Short and the Tall 30. In the play, Mitchem says that Macleish is “as bad as Bamforth”. To what extent do you agree with this opinion?	(Total for Section C: 40 marks)

Begin writing on page 20.

N 3 0 7 1 9 A 0 1 9 3 2

If you choose to answer a question from Section C indicate which question you are answering by marking the box (☒). If you change your mind, put a line through the box (☒) and then indicate your new question with a cross (☒).

- Chosen Question Number:    Question 19     Question 20
Question 21     Question 22
Question 23     Question 24
Question 25     Question 26
Question 27     Question 28
Question 29     Question 30

Write your answer to Section C here:

Leave
blank

(Section C continued)

Leave
blank

(Section C continued)

Leave
blank

(Section C continued)

Leave
blank

(Section C continued)

Leave
blank

(Section C continued)

Leave
blank

Section
C

(Total 40 marks)

25

Turn over

SECTION D: MODERN LITERARY NON-FICTION If you choose to answer on this section, answer ONE question only. You should spend about 45 minutes on the question in this section. Angela's Ashes 31. How convincingly is Frank's growing maturity presented towards the end of this book? Angela's Ashes 32. How does the writer show the reader the influence which his mother had on his life? The Diary of Anne Frank 33. "Despite her difficult circumstances, Anne still shows a sense of humour in her diary." To what extent do you agree with this opinion? The Diary of Anne Frank 34. Anne seems to have had a difficult relationship with her mother. How does she show this in the diary? Bad Blood 35. According to the writer, how significant was her grandfather in her development? Bad Blood 36. At the conclusion of her book, Lorna Sage writes: "It's a good idea to settle for a few loose ends". Many of the episodes and relationships of her childhood seem unresolved. To what extent do you consider her account of her childhood to consist of 'loose ends'? Chinese Cinderella 37. "Adeline's life was not all bad." How far do you agree with this opinion? Chinese Cinderella 38. How successfully does the writer make this story interesting and appealing?	Leave blank
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------

Down and Out in Paris and London 39. It has been said that this book is simply an historical record, and offers little else to today's reader. To what extent do you agree with this view? Down and Out in Paris and London 40. "The female characters who appear in Orwell's account of his experiences are presented in a negative way." To what extent do you agree with this comment?	Leave blank
A Moment of War 41. "This book is made up of a vivid collection of small incidents and minor characters." By referring to some of these, show how the writer illustrates his personal response to his time in Spain. A Moment of War 42. "Throughout the course of this book, the writer has limited freedom, either because he is physically imprisoned, or because he is able to make few decisions of his own." How does the writer recreate this sense of being restricted?

(Total for Section D: 40 marks)

Begin writing on page 28.

N 3 0 7 1 9 A 0 2 7 3 2

27

Turn over

If you choose to answer a question from Section D indicate which question you are answering by marking the box (☒). If you change your mind, put a line through the box (☒) and then indicate your new question with a cross (☒).

- Chosen Question Number:    Question 31     Question 32
Question 33     Question 34
Question 35     Question 36
Question 37     Question 38
Question 39     Question 40
Question 41     Question 42

Write your answer to Section D here:

Leave
blank

(Section D continued)

Leave
blank

N 3 0 7 1 9 A 0 2 9 3 2

(Section D continued)

Leave
blank

(Section D continued)

Leave
blank

(Section D continued)

Leave
blank

Section
D

(Total 40 marks)

TOTAL FOR PAPER: 120 MARKS

END

