I learn that the Capulets are demanding and they seem old fashioned by needing their daughter to get married to the person they choose the Capulet father is horrible and seems to be using his daughter just so they get money & he is willing to disown his daughter if she doesn't marry the rich man he has chosen for her. he says "Hang thee, young baggage! Disobedient wretch! I tell thee what: get thee to church o' Thursday, or never after look me in the face! This has taught me how he is putting money before his own daughter's feelings & I think that he doesn't really care for her ~~off~~ And neither does her mother or her mother would stick up for her rather than let him do & say what he did.

Nurse: god in heaven bless her! you are to blame, my lord, to rate her so. = Nurse could be praying at the church or in Juliet's room. Nurse is upset and angry at the same time.

Capulet: And why, my lady wisdom? Hold your tongue, Good prudence! Smatter with your gossips. Go! = She sounds upset by what is said, scared, angry & confused, passing up & down the room flinging her arms back & forth.

Nurse: I speak no treason. = Cuddling Juliet holding her tight not knowing what to do has the thoughts in her mind about if she does anything she could lose her job so she's trying to be strong yet she is scared for herself & Juliet.

Capulet: Oh god gi' good e'en! = holding her head in her hands talking to the Nurse basically not understanding why her parents won't listen to her or take her feelings into consideration & falling to the floor in need.

Nurse: May one not speak? = saying, why can't Juliet make her own choices & grabbing Juliet to stop the father from harming her any more. Nurse thinks Juliet is entitled to her opinion & thinks it's Juliet's decision.
