

GCSE 2010

UNIT 5EH2F

SCRIPT G

Q02

Write your answer to Section A Question (a) here:

From the extract we learnt lady Macbeth is planning on how to murder king Duncan, so they were exchange ideas with husband. From that we learn that Lady Macbeth is a villain and evil because he was talking to Macbeth and telling him that it must. Example when Macbeth says "If we should fail". Lady Macbeth wouldn't agree his idea because she knows that the king we be murdered so it shows how Villain is lady Macbeth and really wants to kill the king even though Macbeth tells her she can't but Lady Macbeth has the spirit and the power to absolutely kill the king.

On top of that Lady Macbeth says "As we shall make our griefs and clamour roar". Upon his death. So it shows Lady Macbeth is willing to murdered Duncan so they can rule.

Write your answer to Section A Question (b) here:

- They may be performed by saying to each and moving around and saying or talking to each other. This is because of the tension on how kill the king.
- Actions that are taken on is seriously and harshy because if they don't do this it won't be done, Lady Macbeth shows believe and confidence to the play, when she say 'Of his own chamber'.

Positioning of play is like there walking around the house and therefore trying to do everything as possible as they can in order to make tension on talking about it.

- They ^{are} voices are loud and serious to other because if they don't do this they can't have any other time to do it, They are scimming to everyone to make sure that it is safety done.

Write your answer to Section A Question (c) here:

Lady Macbeth and Macbeth were discussing towards the murder of Duncan. It shows how villain and evil are both of them, at first Macbeth was loyal and respectful to the king but ~~to~~ and also after the Captain gave the report from the war, then Macbeth was described as the brave man but he met the witches then he soon changed his mind starting to become very evil and saying really dark words.

Lady Macbeth succeeded in killing/murdering the king and Macbeth came on to the king but this shows how significant and evil did Macbeth come from becoming good to bad.

Macbeth also went on showing evil he is and killed the sons of the king it shows a river of blood Macbeth committing killed the sons and he shows that the witches told at when he finishes ruling the Banquo ~~to~~ child will also become king. He went and killed both Banquo and his sons it shows how significant can evil power be when it is upon it shows from where the witches told him he will become the throw of Cord and from we see how villain is, very evil & dark is Macbeth.

Macbeth know committed know we can see how it returns back-because when Macbeth had a meeting with high people he saw the ghost of Banquo and it really distabed him very much he can't stop because the river of blood he commite
So he went on and killed Macduff's sons rallin and evil and himself and his wife killed herself she could do nothing they died.