Want to go somewhere fun this summer? I know where I'm going; Alton Towers!

Alton Towers is a magnificent theme park for the whole family! I went there last year and it was great! I didn't even have time to explore everything in one day because there was so much to do! There's a massive theme park full of rides, a tremendous water park, and for those mums out there that ~~ex~~ want to just take a break; there's a soothing spa right next door!

I have to say; the theme park was spectacular. I went on this ride called "Air". I felt like I was superman! It immediately sweeps you off your feet and throws you up into the sky! There was also one ride called "Hex". Well, it wasn't what you expect from a ride at all. It's in an old castle, where you learn about the mysterious haunted story of Alton Towers whilst the room rotates!

There was also a fantastic ride called "Oblivion". I know what you're thinking; this must be one scary ride. And you're right! Oblivion is one of the scariest rides that I have ever been on! First of all, you're sat in your seat ascending slowly up a huge ramp. This is actually the worst part of the ride. Because after that; you're hanging off the ramp which is about 20ft high! All you can see then is the ~~£~~ floor and the tunnel that you're going to vertically drop down. That was the longest 3 seconds of my life, and I'm not even overexaggerating! It's one hell of a ride.

After all ~~that~~ of that, you just want to relax and get a bite to eat. Which is no problem at Alton Towers! There are food places dotted all over the ~~whole~~ park. I went to my ~~favorite~~ favourite; KFC. It isn't full of people like there usually is in theme parks because this park is so spacious and stretched out. It's also very easy to find places with incredibly clear and easy to read maps - you never get lost!

The Spa at that place was also fantastic! After all them rides it's just the thing you need. The people there are so polite and friendly too! They even offer one of their special recommended products for free!

If you're a fan of marine life, you'd love to take a look at all the exotic fish in Sea World! You can literally go under the water in a glass tunnel and watch the fish, and even sharks swim above you! I found it so fascinating but yikes!

So, if I recommended you to go anywhere this summer, it would be Alton Towers. It's the perfect escape from work. My next stop this summer is the Waterpark! I suggest you pack your swimsuit now because I heard it's great! See you there!
