

Standardisation Mark Grid - June 2011:
5EH2H

Scripts	Agreed Mark	Comments
Script A	8	a) Some perceptive/thorough understanding but support not sustained. Some questionable or redundant material. 3 b) Reference means interpretation, but there is no explanation of some of the statements made here though some suggestions are valid. 2 c) Generally sound choice of material and says something about significance but knowledge not always secure. Not thorough. 3
Script H	11	a) Two points with only clear support for one of them. Merits 2 b) Sustained interpretation though no specific reference to lines. Holistic view which is valid so interpret MS to help candidate. 4 c) Understands consequences of murder of Duncan so good on significance though without close reference. 5
Script L	13	a) Thorough, mainly, with moments of perception but moves away from extract when making its best point at the end Therefore 5. b) Very detailed and focused but misses the provocation by Shylock. 5 c) Mainly narrative but does attempt to discuss significance, albeit in a superficial way. Some textual reference. 3
Script Y	18	a) Apt points well-supported. 5 b) Picks out some examples of language to explain responses of the men. 4 c) Perceptive understanding at times and makes some links to context. Hints at significance. Could develop some points and misses some opportunities. 9

Script X	6	a) Presents a list of descriptive adjectives and some supporting reference to make limited point.2 b) Some comments about reactions but no focus on language.2 c) Some comment on violence but there are clear inaccuracies.2
AJ	18+6=24	The task has been clearly understood and approached in an appropriate, enthusiastic tone with a clear sense of audience. Ideas are sustained and organisation is secure. Vocabulary is, in general, apt. AO3i/ii: 18 A range of punctuation is used, not always accurately but enabling emphasis. Spelling is mainly accurate. AO3iii: 6
AE	3+2=5	Whilst this candidate starts with a striking image, it isn't long before lack of control becomes evident. The ideas are generally sound, although not always coherent, and the paragraphing is broadly appropriate and the spelling is mainly accurate. However, meaning is very difficult to follow and it is surprising that this candidate was entered for the Higher Tier. AO3i/ii: 3 AO3iii: 2
AB	9+5=14	The content of this work is barely appropriate and the candidate seems to be carrying out a slightly different task than that asked for. There is some sense of organisation and control of paragraphing. AO3i/ii: 9 Spelling is mostly accurate but punctuation is erratic. AO3iii: 5