2 Aistrigh an sliocht seo a leanas go Gaeilge:

Unemployment

Unemployment is a major problem at the present time, not only in Ireland but across the globe also. According to the latest statistics the unemployment rate in Europe is at its highest level since 1998.

Thousands of Irish people have lost their jobs in the construction industry, in factories and in the retail sector. It is estimated that more than 1.4 million jobs have been lost since the start of the recession.

The tourism industry has suffered as a result of the country's economy. There has been a vast decrease in the number of tourists coming into the country.

Moreover, a lot of visitors complain that the cost of living is far too expensive here in Ireland.

Unemployment has a major effect on a person’s well-being. It puts people under a great deal of stress and anxiety.

Unemployment is not a good thing for anyone in today’s society, and the problem needs to be addressed urgently.
