Study the Background Information and the sources carefully. You are advised to spend at least ten minutes doing this.

In answering the questions, you will need to use your knowledge of the topic to interpret and evaluate the sources. When you are asked to use specific sources you must do so, but you may also use any of the other sources if they are relevant.

Answer ALL the questions.

1 Study Source A.

What can you learn from this source about living conditions in the nineteenth century? Use details from the source to explain your answer. [6]

2 Study Sources A and B.

Why do you think these sources give different impressions about living conditions in the nineteenth century? Use the sources and your knowledge to explain your answer. [8]

3 Study Source C.

What is the message of this cartoon? Use the source and your knowledge to explain your answer. [7]

4 Study Source D.

Are you surprised by what this source shows? Use the source and your knowledge to explain your answer. [8]

5 Study Sources E and F.

How useful are these sources to an historian studying living conditions towards the end of the nineteenth century? Use the sources and your knowledge to explain your answer. [9]

6 Study ALL the sources, A to G.

‘The poor living conditions of the working classes had not improved by 1900.’

How far do you agree with this statement? Use the sources and your knowledge to explain your answer. Remember to identify the sources you use. [12]
