Source D

The main idea behind China's foreign policy since 1949 has been its determination to win control over land it regarded as rightfully belonging to the Chinese people.

[Historian Michael Lynch, writing in a school text-book, The People's Republic of China since 1949 (1998)]

| (d) In Source D the author is saying that the main idea behind China's foreign policy sir has been the wish to gain more land. Is this a valid interpretation? |   |  |
|--|---|--|
|  | In your answer you should use your own knowledge of the topic, refer to the other relevant sources in this question, and consider how the author came to this interpretation. [8] |  |
