SECTION A

Translate the following passage into English:

Aeneas and his Trojan followers are attacked by Turnus and his Rutulians

Aeneas, dux Troianorum, castra prope fines Rutulorum posuerat. hi inimici Troianis erant, et a rege Turno ducebantur. mox Aeneas proficiscebatur ad socios ut auxilium compararet. interea filius eius, nomine Ascanius, militibus feminisque praeerat.

Turnus igitur, dum Aeneas apud socios erat, ut castra oppugnarent copias instruxit.

5 exercitum sub moenibus dicens, ante agmen ad Troianos provocandos volavit. Troiani, in castris manere iussi, nullum responsum dederunt. quo facto ignavo adeo iratus erat Turnus ut naves Troianorum, in ripa fluminis depositas, incendere conaretur.

dea tamen Cybele, quae Aeneae favebat, naves in nymphas mutavit ne arderentur.

10 itaque cum Rutuli hoc miraculum vidissent, tantus erat timor ut omnes fugerent. Turnus igitur eos sic hortatus est:

'nolite timere! necesse est vobis castra eorum obsidere. moenia delenda sunt!'

SECTION C

Nisus and Euryalus attempt to bring help to the besieged Trojans quae cum Turnus locutus esset, principes Rutulorum suis imperaverunt ut fossas exstruerent; itaque Trioani undique obsessi sunt.

5 cum nox advenisset, dum Rutuli circumsedent, in castris principes Troiani colloquium habebant ut consilium caperent. senioribus graviter loquentibus, duo iuvenes, qui Nisus Euryalusque appellebantur, cum intravissent, se nuntios ad Aenean ituros esse affirmaverunt. seniores, cum hanc virtutem vidissent, laeti erant.

10 mox ambo iuvenes per silvam repebant. subito invenerunt multos Rutulos graviter dormientes, quod multum vinum biberant. qui ferociter oppugnati omnes necati sunt. postea, tam sanguineus erat Nisus quam leo qui oves caedit.

Troiani vero celeriter progressi, equitibus inimicis, Volcente duce, obviam iverunt. statim fugerunt et elapsi essent nisi galea, a Rutulo capta, luce Lunae refulsisset et immemores prodidisset. Euryalo equitibus capto et imperfecto, Nisus Volcentem hasta interfecit et, amicum ultus, in medios hostes ruit. telis dilianatus est.

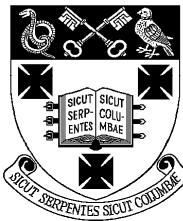

Nisus et Euryalus, quod facinus audacissimum temptaverant, clarissimi erant.
