Answer one essay question only. You must base your answer on both of the part 3 works you have studied. Answers which are not based on a discussion of both part 3 works will not score high marks. Your answer should address the ways in which language and context contribute to your reading of each work.

1. Identify some of the forms intolerance can take, and discuss how its effects on both the victims and the intolerant are presented in the two works you have studied.
  2. Often the appeal for the reader of a literary work is the atmosphere a writer creates (for example, peaceful, menacing or ironic). Discuss some of the ways atmospheres are conveyed and to what effect in the two works you have studied.
  3. Writers often choose words, phrases and names of characters and places not only for their literal meaning, but for further meanings that they may suggest to the reader. With reference to the two works you have studied, discuss how such words and their associations contribute to your understanding and appreciation of the works.
  4. In what way(s) can the term “artificial” be applied to the two works you have studied?
  5. Referring to the two works you have studied, discuss both how and why the text invites the reader to identify with situations, characters and/or ideas.
  6. How is “home” depicted in the two works you have studied and what is its significance?
