Answer one essay question only. You must base your answer on both of the part 3 works you have studied. Answers which are not based on a discussion of both part 3 works will not score high marks. Your answer should address the ways in which language and context contribute to your reading of each work.

1. Many works are concerned with human suffering. How has this concern been expressed in a way that engages audiences of various times and/or places in the two works you have studied?
  2. Tension often builds to a critical point in a piece of literature. How is tension created in the two works you have studied and for what purpose?
  3. Explore the presentation and significance of jealousy in the two works you have studied.
  4. In what ways do the form and content of the two works you have studied reflect the time and place in which they were written?
  5. What techniques did your two writers use to convey the “thoughts” of their characters, narrators or speakers and to what effect?
  6. In what ways have your two writers explored the role of the individual within society and what conclusions might be drawn from these explorations?
