INTERNATIONAL INDIAN SCHOOL - DAMMAM FIRST TERMINAL EXAMINATION JUNE 2013

Student Bounts, com CLASS: XI MAX.MARKS: 70 SUBJECT: HOME SCIENCE TIME: 3 Hours

|--|

(a)	All	Questions	are	comp	oulsory.

- (b) Marks for each question are indicated against it.
- (c) Read each question carefully and answer to the point.
- (d) All parts of a question should be attempted together

. Atif is 5 months and Leela is 3 years old. State two differences in their body proportions	1
2. What is fibre?	1
3. Define health	1
4. What are proteins made up of?	1
5. Define resource	1
5. Why is 'Evaluation' done?	1
7 refers to the column of loops in knitted fabrics	1
3. What is filament yarn	1
O. Give a brief account of scope of home science	2
0. At what age is a child able to:
a) Differentiate between love & scolding
b) Climb stairs	2
1. Name 2 food sources rich in protein	2 2 2 2 2 2 2 3 3 3
2. What is babbling & at what age does it start?	2
3. List the steps involved in the process of management	2
4. Define Malnutrition. List 2 forms of Malnutrition	2
5. What do you understand by decision making?	2
6. Cottons feel cool in summer. Explain	2
7. Home science studies provide vast career opportunities. Discuss	3
8. Give classification of carbohydrates along with examples	3
9. What is plain weave? Give 2 examples	3
20. List 3 primary and 3 secondary properties of fibre	3
21. Differentiate between Kwashiorkar and Marasmus	3
2. Give the functional classification of food	4
3. Suggest 2 ways each for conserving water, parks, schools and hospitals and school resources
long with examples	4
4. What are fats, list how fats are classified along with its 2 functions and 2 sources	4
5. Give the chemical, physical and thermal properties of polyester along with its 4 uses	4
6. Trace the motor development of children from 0 months to 3 years	5
7. Present a plan for taking admission to a professional course	5
8. Explain the chemical spinning methods in detail	5