Q. 8

Poetry

8.1

But feels remorse over life of sin.
Sins make him feel uncomfortable and are heavy burden on him, 3

He cries and pleads for mercy. He is heart sore.
He trembles, and pledges to be a repentant
servant. 3

Sin is like a veil between himself and God.
God showers his blessings continuously notwithstanding his sins. 3

His prayer is answered at the end of the poem when he feels he is forgiven, and the heavy chains (of disobedience) are lifted. 3

(12)

8.2.

Sin is compared to heavy chains like a yoke around his neck. Once forgiven these chains are lifted and he feels at ease.
It is a metaphor. (35)

[Q9]

Quran

9.1

Alif Laam Meem

Do men think they will be left alone on saying: We believe; and will not be tried?

Indeed we tried those before them, so Allah will certainly know those who are true and He will know the liars.

Or do they who work evil think that they will escape us? Evil is it that they judge.

Whoever hopes to meet with Allah, the fear of Allah is then surely coming. He is the hearing, the knowing. Whoever strives hard, strives for himself.

Surely Allah is self sufficient, above need of His creatures.

9.2

men who claim to believe will definitely be tested in one way or the other.

Belief is not merely lip service.

Q. 10

Hadith

10.1 A. On the authority of Abu Sa'īd al Khudrī (RA) who said: I heard the messenger of Allah (PBUH) say: Whoever of you sees an evil action, let him change it with his hand; and if he is not able to do so, then with his tongue; and if he is not able to do so, then with his heart - and that is the weakest of faith - 6

B. On the authority of Abu Umar (RA) who said: The messenger of Allah (SAW) took me by my hand and said: Be in this world as if you are a stranger or a wayfarer/traveller. 4

(10)

10.2. Live simply because you are in the world for a very short period only
A traveller travels lightly (3)
