- 2.2 The uniqueness of His sovereignty
- (1) He is seen as Priest.
 In his vision John saw someone like a human being 'wearing a robe that reached to his feet, and a gold belt round his chest'. (1:13)
 This is what the Old Testament priests wore.
 Thus, John clearly sees Christ as a priest.
- (2) He does the work of a priest.
 The Old Testament priests offered sacrifices on behalf of the people so that God would forgive their sins.
 Christ, the Lamb, offered Himself in sacrifice on our behalf, and 'by his death he has freed us from our sins' (1:5)
- (3) He has made us priests.
 Not only did Christ act as a priest:
 He has also 'made us a kingdom of priests to serve his God and Father'.
 This is why He will give each of those who remain faithful to Him a new name: 'I will write on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem' (Philadelphia).
