GAUTENG DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION SENIOR CERTIFICATE EXAMINATION

ENGLISH ADDITIONAL LANGUAGE HG (Second Paper: Literature)

QUESTION 1 POETRY

1.1.1	slums
1.1.2	objective
1.1.3	unmotivated
1.1.4	sensitive
1.1.5	monotony		(5)
1.2	"His soul stretched tight" "trampled by insistent feet"		(2)
1.3	the sound of marching feet		(2)
1.4	- People return from work.		(2)
1.5	 night / blackened, polluted air no hope / ambition / enlightenment / no other interests 		(4)
1.6	It becomes compassionate / He feels sympathy for the people.		(2)
1.7	The human soul / the soul / spirit of city dwellers		(2)
1.8	the poet		(1)
1.9	cynicism / sarcasm / scepticism / doubt / contempt / scorn		(2)
1.10	This suffering is ongoing and by standing still and being sympathet change their circumstances. This has been the suffering of the poor since the beginning of time nothing will change it nor is there something we can do about it.	and
		ANY ONE	(2)

P.T.O.

1.11	Unrested suggests it goes on and on / it is constantly moving. It is also more effective as far as the rhythm is concerned. Restless suggests uneasy, agitated.	(2)
1.12	The sea is unpredictable - sometimes calm sometimes stormy. The lives of the fishermen are also stormy. Sometimes they catch something but sometimes lives can be lost.	(2)
1.13	Their income / lives depend on the generosity of the sea. As easily as it gives it can also take away. Their working environment is therefore very fragile. Accept also brittle = hard – difficult	(2)
1.14	golden coin – money / valuables / more valuable than silver – the sun is like a coin – silver chips – silver refers to the colour of the fish they caught which to them are more important than gold as fishing is their livelihood. – the idea of money / chips is consistent with the idea of gambling	(4)
1.15	The sea / fish, sun and the wind are there for the benefit of man as they depend on it for their livelihood. Man needs the generosity of nature but they laugh / scorn at it as they have little value for it ("but they mock it")	(4)
1.16	The fishermen experiences difficulties which cause bitterness. They required patience, waiting for a big catch. reference to a lack of living facilities reference to kinds of risks that have to be taken
	ANY TWO	(2) [40]
	QUESTION 2
	MARU
2.1	MARU Daisies resemble the face of his wife and the sun of his love. Yellow is a colour that is associated with the sun – life-giver, so it might mean that his wife has given him a new lease on life.
2.1	MARU Daisies resemble the face of his wife and the sun of his love. Yellow is a colour that is associated with the sun – life-giver, so it might mean	(2)
2.1	MARU Daisies resemble the face of his wife and the sun of his love. Yellow is a colour that is associated with the sun – life-giver, so it might mean that his wife has given him a new lease on life. It resembles the dream Maru had and Margaret painted.	(2)
	Daisies resemble the face of his wife and the sun of his love. Yellow is a colour that is associated with the sun – life-giver, so it might mean that his wife has given him a new lease on life. It resembles the dream Maru had and Margaret painted. He wants beauty and happiness. ANY TWO anger, pessimism, evil When he thinks of the possibility of Margaret / his wife thinking of Moleka, he feels black anger come over him.	(2)
2.2	Daisies resemble the face of his wife and the sun of his love. Yellow is a colour that is associated with the sun — life-giver, so it might mean that his wife has given him a new lease on life. It resembles the dream Maru had and Margaret painted. He wants beauty and happiness. ANY TWO anger, pessimism, evil When he thinks of the possibility of Margaret / his wife thinking of Moleka, he feels black anger come over him. He fears that he might have to kill Moleka.	(2)
2.22.32.4.1	Daisies resemble the face of his wife and the sun of his love. Yellow is a colour that is associated with the sun – life-giver, so it might mean that his wife has given him a new lease on life. It resembles the dream Maru had and Margaret painted. He wants beauty and happiness. ANY TWO anger, pessimism, evil When he thinks of the possibility of Margaret / his wife thinking of Moleka, he feels black anger come over him. He fears that he might have to kill Moleka. he is happy / calm / at peace	(2)
2.22.32.4.1	Daisies resemble the face of his wife and the sun of his love. Yellow is a colour that is associated with the sun — life-giver, so it might mean that his wife has given him a new lease on life. It resembles the dream Maru had and Margaret painted. He wants beauty and happiness. ANY TWO anger, pessimism, evil When he thinks of the possibility of Margaret / his wife thinking of Moleka, he feels black anger come over him. He fears that he might have to kill Moleka.	(2)
2.22.4.12.4.2	Daisies resemble the face of his wife and the sun of his love. Yellow is a colour that is associated with the sun – life-giver, so it might mean that his wife has given him a new lease on life. It resembles the dream Maru had and Margaret painted. He wants beauty and happiness. ANY TWO anger, pessimism, evil When he thinks of the possibility of Margaret / his wife thinking of Moleka, he feels black anger come over him. He fears that he might have to kill Moleka. he is happy / calm / at peace He is not always sure of the love of his wife. He is not always sure of his own reactions towards his wife because of his	(2) (2) (2)

2.4.4	injustice oppression lack of change lack of freedom of choice	ANY THREE	(3)
2.5	Maru		(2)
2.6	(literal + figurative) She had lost track of time. She is lost in a creative exercise. She reveals her inner self and gets rid of all the things that she for so long. / oblivious of the world around her.	has bottled up	(3)
2.7.1	racial prejudice a sense of alienation / loneliness		(2)
2.7.2	 She is like a non-swimmer, drowning. She is helpless and cannot control her feelings / she is or by creative energy. 	verwhelmed ANY ONE	(2)
2.7.3	relaxed / at peace with herself She has come to terms with who/what she is.		(2)
2.8.1	She is a talented painter, she can paint more pictures.		(2)
2.8.2	They reflect Manu's visions.		(2)
2.9	(EXAMPLE ANSWER)
	Maru. He wants Margaret and he will go to great lengths to get merciless when he wants something. He uses deceit to find out thinks when he gives her the gift. On the other hand Maru is remarkably dignified and self-posses born leader. He is sensitive, sincere, vulnerable and idealistic.	what Margaret	(6)
2.10.1	parallel
2.10.2	racism / oppression / prejudice / alienation
2.10.3	isolation / alienation / prejudice
2.10.4	a kingdom within herself / creativity		(4) [40]

3 P.T.O.

QUESTION 3 JULIUS CAESAR

EXTRACT A

Act I	Sc ii
3.1	All barren people would be healed of their infertility.
3.2	Calphurnia is barren / infertile / childless.		(2
3.3	 (i) He is a man of authority – his instructions are always fol (ii) He is respected ("my lord"). 	lowed.	(2
3.4	His left ear cannot hear / he is deaf.		(2
3.5	(B) – authoritative		(2
3.6	It emphasises the idea of danger / creates suspense.		(2
3.7	"He is a dreamer."		(2
3.8	8 psychic / sangoma / clairvoyant / fortune-teller
EXTRACT B
Act IV	V Sc iii
3.9	Sardis		(2
3.10	To feed, clothe soldiers for arms, medicines, etc.	(ANY ONE)	(2
3.11	(i) greed (ii) Accept A, B & C		(2
3.12	honour, honesty, short temper, anger	(ANY ONE)	(2
3.13	13 Disbelief, shock
3.14	4 C – Brutus is scornful and totally condemns Cassius for this action.		(2
3.15	great Julius" "foremost man"		(2
3.16	closing his fist / grabbing at something		(2

3.17 To emphasise that they all killed Caesar for the sake of justice

3.18 Cassius was jealous of Caesar.

4 P.T.O.

TOTAL:

(2)

(2)

[40]

QUESTION 4 MACBETH

4.1	Banqı	JO	(2
4.2.1	Both t	he Macbeths	(2
4.2.2	So that nobody can witness their actions
4.3	She w	ould signal by striking the bell.	(2)
4.4	A		(2)
4.5		sh excitement / trance-like state of mind / confused / anxious oppressed brain' 'vision' 'I have thee not' (ANY TWO)	(4)
4.6	be op	expressions; frown / scowl, appear puzzled / confused, mouth might en signs; outstretched arms, groping movements anguage; rigid, tension-filled body. Quick breathing to show anxiety ANY RELEVANT ANSWERS	3x2=(6)
4.7	"heat "a fals	dagger of the mind" oppressed brain" se creation" ot 'yes' if the reason is dramatic effectiveness. ANY ONE	(2)
4.8	YES	His ambition has distorted his thoughts. At this stage he is so afraid that something might go wrong (they might be caught), that he is filled with feverish tension. The witches could affect men through dreams and hallucinations. Macbeth is hallucinating so he is already disturbed into believing good is bad and bad is good.	(4)
4.9.1	Appea	arance vs. Reality	(2)
4.9.2	Pictur you.	es are harmless, so are people who are asleep. The dead cannot harm	(2)
4.10.1	True:	from now on Macbeth is totally evil and commits terrible crimes without consulting his wife. Accept false if reference is made to the banquet scene after the appearance of the ghost.	(2)
4.10.2	False	she sleepwalks, talks in her sleep, reveals all when she is sleepwalking, tormented by what she has done.	(2)
4.11	When	Macbeth visits the witches / at the end of the cauldron scene	(2)
4.12	They	are Banquo's children. It proves that the prophecy will come true.	(2)
4.13	He is	bloodthirsty, spiteful.	(2) [40]

QUESTION 5 FOCUS

EXTRACT A: AN OI	RNERY K	IND O	IF KIL)
------------------	---------	-------	--------	---

5.3 He has undergone an attitude change following a shooting expedition / has grown up. He has shown courage and control / gained understanding 5.4 Mayo is Maloney's son. (2) 5.5 C (family relationships) (2) 5.8 A Chinese restaurant. (2) 5.7 He did not get along with his father. He was extremely rude, despised the church; the government, the school system, the UN. finding fault with everything criticised his father's interest in classical music and his mother's interest in the church. EXTRACT: B PLYMOUTH 5.8.1 car salesman (1) 5.8.2 the 1936 model car (1) 5.8.3 the father of Corrie, / the man who bought his son a 2.5 calibre rifle (1) 5.9 knowledgeable, trendy / modern / young / cheerful (ANY TWO) (4) 5.10 He is jealous of his son. (2) 5.11 He goes out to buy a car. (2) 5.12 When he cannot operate the car to stop the car from moving. (2) 5.13 He admits that he is not suited to modern methods of transport. (2) 5.14 C (that he could be asked to drive) (2) 5.15 He does not want to admit that he cannot drive — pride. (3) (4) (4) (4) (4) (5) (6) (7) (7) (8) (8) (9) (9) (9) (9) (9) (9) (9) (9) (9) (9	5.1	Mayo		(1)
grown up. He has shown courage and control / gained understanding 5.4 Mayo is Maloney's son. (2) 5.5 C (family relationships) (2) 5.6 A Chinese restaurant. (2) 5.7 He did not get along with his father. He was extremely rude, despised the church; the government, the school system, the UN. finding fault with everything criticised his father's interest in classical music and his mother's interest in the church. EXTRACT: B PLYMOUTH 5.8.1 car salesman (1) 5.8.2 the 1936 model car (1) 5.8.3 the father of Corrie, / the man who bought his son a 2.5 calibre rifle (1) 5.9 knowledgeable, trendy / modern / young / cheerful (ANY TWO) (4) 5.10 He is jealous of his son. (2) 5.11 He goes out to buy a car. (2) 5.12 When he cannot operate the car to stop the car from moving. (2) 5.13 He admits that he is not suited to modern methods of transport. (2) 5.14 C (that he could be asked to drive) (2) 5.15 He does not want to admit that he cannot drive — pride. (3) 5.16.2 It makes the car seem like a person / gives it personality. (4) (5) 6.18 He eventually gives it to his son as an Xmas gift. (1) (2) (3) (4)	5.2	11 yrs		(1)
5.5 C (family relationships) 6.6 A Chinese restaurant. 6.7 He did not get along with his father. He was extremely rude, despised the church; the government, the school system, the UN. finding fault with everything criticised his father's interest in classical music and his mother's interest in the church. EXTRACT: B PLYMOUTH 5.8.1 car salesman 6.8.2 the 1936 model car 7.8.3 the father of Corrie, / the man who bought his son a 2.5 calibre rifle 7.9 knowledgeable, trendy / modern / young / cheerful 7.0 He is jealous of his son. 7.1 He goes out to buy a car. 7.1 When he cannot operate the car to stop the car from moving. 7.1 He admits that he is not suited to modern methods of transport. 7.1 He does not want to admit that he cannot drive – pride. 7.1 He does not want to admit that he cannot drive – pride. 7.1 He usually drives mules. 7.1 He eventually gives it to his son as an Xmas gift.	5.3	grown up.	ition / has	(3)
5.6 A Chinese restaurant. (2) 5.7 He did not get along with his father. He was extremely rude, despised the church; the government, the school system, the UN. finding fault with everything criticised his father's interest in classical music and his mother's interest in the church. (ANY 2) (4) EXTRACT: B PLYMOUTH 5.8.1 car salesman (1) 5.8.2 the 1936 model car (1) 5.8.3 the father of Corrie, / the man who bought his son a 2.5 calibre rifle (1) 5.9 knowledgeable, trendy / modern / young / cheerful (ANY TWO) (4) 5.10 He is jealous of his son. (2) 5.11 He goes out to buy a car. (2) 5.12 When he cannot operate the car to stop the car from moving. (2) 5.13 He admits that he is not suited to modern methods of transport. (2) 5.14 C (that he could be asked to drive) (2) 5.15 He does not want to admit that he cannot drive – pride. (2) 5.16.1 personification (1) 5.16.2 It makes the car seem like a person / gives it personality. (2) 5.17 He usually drives mules. (2) 5.18 He eventually gives it to his son as an Xmas gift. (1)	5.4	Mayo is Maloney's son.		(2)
5.7 He did not get along with his father. He was extremely rude, despised the church; the government, the school system, the UN. finding fault with everything criticised his father's interest in classical music and his mother's interest in the church. (ANY 2) (4) EXTRACT: B PLYMOUTH 5.8.1 car salesman (1) 5.8.2 the 1936 model car (1) 5.8.3 the father of Corrie, / the man who bought his son a 2.5 calibre rifle (1) 5.9 knowledgeable, trendy / modern / young / cheerful (ANY TWO) (4) 5.10 He is jealous of his son. (2) 5.11 He goes out to buy a car. (2) 5.12 When he cannot operate the car to stop the car from moving. (2) 5.13 He admits that he is not suited to modern methods of transport. (2) 5.14 C (that he could be asked to drive) (2) 5.15 He does not want to admit that he cannot drive – pride. (2) 5.16.1 personification (1) 5.16.2 It makes the car seem like a person / gives it personality. (2) 5.17 He usually drives mules. (2) 5.18 He eventually gives it to his son as an Xmas gift. (1)	5.5	C (family relationships)		(2)
despised the church; the government, the school system, the UN. finding fault with everything criticised his father's interest in classical music and his mother's interest in the church. (ANY 2) (4) EXTRACT: B PLYMOUTH 5.8.1 car salesman (1) 5.8.2 the 1936 model car (1) 5.8.3 the father of Corrie, / the man who bought his son a 2.5 calibre rifle (1) 5.9 knowledgeable, trendy / modern / young / cheerful (ANY TWO) (4) 5.10 He is jealous of his son. (2) 5.11 He goes out to buy a car. (2) 5.12 When he cannot operate the car to stop the car from moving. (2) 5.13 He admits that he is not suited to modern methods of transport. (2) 5.14 C (that he could be asked to drive) (2) 5.15 He does not want to admit that he cannot drive – pride. (2) 5.16.1 personification (1) 5.16.2 It makes the car seem like a person / gives it personality. (2) 5.17 He usually drives mules. (2) 5.18 He eventually gives it to his son as an Xmas gift. (1)	5.6	A Chinese restaurant.		(2)
5.8.1 car salesman (1) 5.8.2 the 1936 model car (1) 5.8.3 the father of Corrie, / the man who bought his son a 2.5 calibre rifle (1) 5.9 knowledgeable, trendy / modern / young / cheerful (ANY TWO) (4) 5.10 He is jealous of his son. (2) 5.11 He goes out to buy a car. (2) 5.12 When he cannot operate the car to stop the car from moving. (2) 5.13 He admits that he is not suited to modern methods of transport. (2) 5.14 C (that he could be asked to drive) (2) 5.15 He does not want to admit that he cannot drive – pride. (2) 5.16.1 personification (1) 5.16.2 It makes the car seem like a person / gives it personality. (2) 5.17 He usually drives mules. (2) 5.18 He eventually gives it to his son as an Xmas gift.	5.7	despised the church; the government, the school system, the UN finding fault with everything criticised his father's interest in classical music and his mother's in	nterest in	(4)
5.8.2 the 1936 model car 5.8.3 the father of Corrie, / the man who bought his son a 2.5 calibre rifle 5.9 knowledgeable, trendy / modern / young / cheerful 6.10 He is jealous of his son. 6.11 He goes out to buy a car. 6.12 When he cannot operate the car to stop the car from moving. 6.13 He admits that he is not suited to modern methods of transport. 6.14 C (that he could be asked to drive) 6.15 He does not want to admit that he cannot drive – pride. 6.16.1 personification 6.17 6.18 He usually drives mules. 6.29 6.19 6.20 6.21 6.31 6.32 6.32 6.33 6.33 6.34 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35 6.35	EXTR	ACT: B PLYMOUTH
5.8.3 the father of Corrie, / the man who bought his son a 2.5 calibre rifle 5.9 knowledgeable, trendy / modern / young / cheerful (ANY TWO) 6.10 He is jealous of his son. 6.11 He goes out to buy a car. 6.12 When he cannot operate the car to stop the car from moving. 6.13 He admits that he is not suited to modern methods of transport. 6.14 C (that he could be asked to drive) 6.15 He does not want to admit that he cannot drive – pride. 6.16.1 personification 6.17 6.18.2 It makes the car seem like a person / gives it personality. 6.18 He eventually gives it to his son as an Xmas gift.	5.8.1	car salesman		(1)
5.9 knowledgeable, trendy / modern / young / cheerful (ANY TWO) (4) 5.10 He is jealous of his son. (2) 5.11 He goes out to buy a car. (2) 5.12 When he cannot operate the car to stop the car from moving. (2) 5.13 He admits that he is not suited to modern methods of transport. (2) 5.14 C (that he could be asked to drive) (2) 5.15 He does not want to admit that he cannot drive – pride. (2) 5.16.1 personification (1) 5.16.2 It makes the car seem like a person / gives it personality. (2) 5.17 He usually drives mules. (2) 5.18 He eventually gives it to his son as an Xmas gift. (1)	5.8.2	the 1936 model car		(1)
5.10 He is jealous of his son. (2) 5.11 He goes out to buy a car. (2) 5.12 When he cannot operate the car to stop the car from moving. (2) 5.13 He admits that he is not suited to modern methods of transport. (2) 5.14 C (that he could be asked to drive) (2) 5.15 He does not want to admit that he cannot drive – pride. (2) 5.16.1 personification (1) 5.16.2 It makes the car seem like a person / gives it personality. (2) 5.17 He usually drives mules. (2) 6.18 He eventually gives it to his son as an Xmas gift.	5.8.3	the father of Corrie, / the man who bought his son a 2.5 calibre ri	fle	(1)
5.11 He goes out to buy a car. 5.12 When he cannot operate the car to stop the car from moving. 5.13 He admits that he is not suited to modern methods of transport. 5.14 C (that he could be asked to drive) 5.15 He does not want to admit that he cannot drive – pride. 5.16.1 personification (1) 5.16.2 It makes the car seem like a person / gives it personality. (2) 5.17 He usually drives mules. (2) 5.18 He eventually gives it to his son as an Xmas gift.	5.9	knowledgeable, trendy / modern / young / cheerful	(ANY TWO)	(4)
5.12 When he cannot operate the car to stop the car from moving. 5.13 He admits that he is not suited to modern methods of transport. 5.14 C (that he could be asked to drive) 5.15 He does not want to admit that he cannot drive – pride. 5.16.1 personification 5.16.2 It makes the car seem like a person / gives it personality. 5.17 He usually drives mules. (2) 5.18 He eventually gives it to his son as an Xmas gift.	5.10	He is jealous of his son.		(2)
5.13 He admits that he is not suited to modern methods of transport. (2) 5.14 C (that he could be asked to drive) (2) 5.15 He does not want to admit that he cannot drive – pride. (2) 5.16.1 personification (1) 5.16.2 It makes the car seem like a person / gives it personality. (2) 5.17 He usually drives mules. (2) 5.18 He eventually gives it to his son as an Xmas gift.	5.11	He goes out to buy a car.		(2)
5.14 C (that he could be asked to drive) 5.15 He does not want to admit that he cannot drive – pride. 5.16.1 personification 5.16.2 It makes the car seem like a person / gives it personality. 5.17 He usually drives mules. 5.18 He eventually gives it to his son as an Xmas gift.	5.12	When he cannot operate the car to stop the car from moving.		(2)
5.15 He does not want to admit that he cannot drive – pride. 5.16.1 personification 5.16.2 It makes the car seem like a person / gives it personality. 5.17 He usually drives mules. 5.18 He eventually gives it to his son as an Xmas gift. (2)	5.13	He admits that he is not suited to modern methods of transport.		(2)
 5.16.1 personification 5.16.2 It makes the car seem like a person / gives it personality. 5.17 He usually drives mules. 5.18 He eventually gives it to his son as an Xmas gift. 	5.14	C (that he could be asked to drive)		(2)
5.16.2 It makes the car seem like a person / gives it personality. 5.17 He usually drives mules. 5.18 He eventually gives it to his son as an Xmas gift. (2)	5.15	He does not want to admit that he cannot drive - pride.		(2)
5.17 He usually drives mules.5.18 He eventually gives it to his son as an Xmas gift.(1)	5.16.1	personification		(1)
5.18 He eventually gives it to his son as an Xmas gift. (1)	5.16.2	It makes the car seem like a person / gives it personality.		(2)
5.18 He eventually gives it to his son as an Xmas gift. [40]	5.17	He usually drives mules.		(2)
	5.18	He eventually gives it to his son as an Xmas gift.		(1) [40]

6 P.T.O.

QUESTION 6 STORIES SOUTH AFRICAN

EXTRACT A: BADENI'S BANKNOTE

6.1	(i) (ii)	By acting as if he is friendly and trustworthy. Using the name Tandabantu, that suggests love for people.	(2) (2)
6.2	"in eve	ery respect"	(2)
6.3	Flatte	ry	(2)
6.4	C - A	ccidental	(2)
6.5	(i) (ii)	He is a trickster, a fraud, dishonest, a liar. (ANY ONE) He targets ignorant Shangaans who have no understanding of
	(iii)	money. He whispers lies to customers, like Badeni, that they better quality goods. (ANY ONE)	(2)
6.6	The w	vife receives what Badeni calls paper money (£5.00 note) but she cannot use it to buy anything. The teacher and the labour agent, assure her that it is a worthless paper	(2)
6.7	(£5.00	shopkeeper (Tandabantu) realises Bodeni is ignorant of paper money 0 note). He takes advantage of him by using a colourful paper claiming is £5.00.	(2)
6.8, 1	FALS	E: They make Mamtolo aware that £5.00 is a worthless paper.	(2)
6.9	west 80m - 586 - 8885	arrested for fraud and sentenced to 3 months' imprisonment and pays a 00 fine.	(2)
EXTR	ACT E	3: HOW TABLE MOUNTAIN GOT ITS CLOUD
6.10	Mynh	eer van Hunks and the visitor / the devil	(2)
6.11		e passage, he is called "the intruder", "the stranger". Van Hunks asks who may you be?" The stranger says "where I come from". (ANY TWO)	(4)
6.12	Outsr	moking each other	(2)
6.13		van Hunks is very well travelled. He is very experienced in the ways of orld, enough to make informed choices. (ANY TWO)	(4)
6.14	TRUE	E, he is lonely and most people are scared at the very sight of him	(2)

105-1/2 W

6.15	D is honourable	(2)
6.16	"The old pirate" or "the sailor"	(2)
6.17	He is the devil / evil.	(2)
		[40]