

THE ROYAL COLLEGE OF SURGEONS OF EDINBURGH
MEMBERSHIP IN SURGICAL DENTISTRY

PART II

PAPER I

Time: 3 hours

Human disease in relation to Surgical Dentistry

ALL questions to be answered

Candidates are advised to use headings, subheadings and diagrams where appropriate

1. Discuss the role of prophylactic antibiotic therapy in surgical dentistry. What regimes would you use?
2. Discuss the differential diagnosis and management of a patient who suddenly loses consciousness in the dental surgery.
3. Discuss the local and systemic causes of persistent haemorrhage following surgery in the mouth.

THE ROYAL COLLEGE OF SURGEONS OF EDINBURGH
MEMBERSHIP IN SURGICAL DENTISTRY

PART II

PAPER II

Time: 3 hours

Practice of Surgical Dentistry

ALL questions to be answered

Candidates are advised to use headings, subheadings and diagrams where appropriate

1. A 10 year-old patient presents with an unerupted upper left permanent central incisor tooth. Discuss the aetiology and management.
2. During the extraction of an upper second molar tooth the palatal root is lost. Discuss your management of this case.
3. Discuss the indications, contraindications and possible complications of intravenous sedation for dentoalveolar surgery.