The Ant and the Dove

LEAVE
BLANK
FOR OFFICIAL
USE ONLY

A thirsty ant found itself in difficulty.

olim formica cupiebat bibere aquam et festinavit ad rivum.

subito formica cecidit in aquam.

Luckily a dove came to the ant's rescue.

columba arripuit folium ex arbore et omisit folium in aquam prope formicam.

formica ascendit in folium.

ventus lente movit formicam trans rivum.

formica erat salva et laeta.

Then the dove found itself in difficulty too.

A certain man
homo quidam venit ad rivum.

He wanted
voluit capere columbam in reticulo.

formica putavit: “columba nunc est mea amica”

the man's foot
et morsit hominis pedem.

in a loud voice
homo magna voce clamavit et omisit reticulum.

columba nunc salva et laeta avolavit.

The message of the story is clear: one good turn deserves another.
